

Victoria Day

Victoria Day is on the Monday on or before May 25th every year. Queen Victoria was the Queen of England and

Canada

from 1837 to 1901

— a very long time! Victoria Day was her birthday.

Many things have Victoria's name: Victoria, B.C., Victoria Drive,

and the University of Victoria.

Now, many Canadians have picnics

and barbeques

on Victoria Day.

Victoria Day

Write words from the story that have a capital letter in the right box.

Names of People:

Text

Names of Countries:

Names of Days of the Week:

Names of Streets:

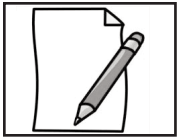

Names of Nationalities:
(example: Chinese)

Names of Cities:

Names of Places:

First Word of the Sentence:

Victoria Day

Write the capitals.

Today, queen elizabeth is england and canada's queen. victoria day is also the day for canadians to remember the birthday of queen elizabeth. she lives in london, england. her son's name is prince charles. when queen elizabeth dies, prince charles will be our king.

Copy. Add the capitals.
